

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N.C. MONDAY, APRIL 20 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

7 Bills Passed for Polk

The following bills for Polk County have been passed by the state legislature.

Validate the acts of the Polk county board of commissioners with reference to county tax list of 1930.

Repeal certain laws relative to enforcement of prohibition laws in Polk County. This old law provided for bonus for capture of automobiles and persons charged with violation of prohibition laws.

Appoint special school committee for Green Creek district in Green Creek township, Polk county.

Abolish office of tax collector and place duty of collecting taxes in hands of sheriff of Polk county.

Appoint road supervisor for Polk county.

Amend charter of Town of Saluda so as to provide for extension of corporate limits.

Fix salary and fees for the sheriff of Polk county.

Revival Shows Interest

The Revival services being held at the Tryon Methodist church are drawing crowds. Rev. H.F. Duncan of Fletcher, graduate of Emory University, is conducting the services every afternoon at 3:30 and at night at 8. Children and those can't go out at night are urged to attend the afternoon services. His subject for tonight will be "The Convicting Power of the Holy Spirit."

Landrum Man Buried

Mr. J. Sam Watson, prominent former merchant of Landrum, was buried Sunday afternoon at New Prospect Baptist church. Dr. E. E. Bomar of Tryon officiated, assisted by Rev. A.C. Odom, of Landrum. Part of the large crowd attending the service could not get in the church. Widow and several children survive.

Tilting Tournament Wednesday

The Riding and Hunt club's Tilting Tournament and pageant will be held Wednesday 3:30 p.m. at Harmon Field. Twelve riders are planning to take part in this event which promises to be a pageant of unusual beauty.