

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N.C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N.C. TUESDAY, APRIL 21 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Legion Meets Tonight

The American Legion meeting will be held tonight at the Royal Cafe in Landrum.

Tilting Tournament Wednesday

The Annual Tilting Tournament of the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club will be held tomorrow at Harmon Field, beginning at 3:30. Admission fifty cents.

Newell, Kiwanis Speaker

Rev. W.A. Newell was the principal speaker at the Kiwanis Club today. He spoke against the sales tax plan and predicted that unless we watch ourselves the political situation in this country will get into a mess. Curtis Arledge spoke briefly in favor of the sales tax which will allow people who own nothing to help support the government that gives them protection and comforts the same as a property owner.

Mills Freed of Murder Charge

In the criminal court session last week at Columbus, William Mills, colored, was freed of the charge of killing Napoleon Cheek, colored, on Jan. 20.

Candidates File by April 24

All candidates for office in the local election to be held May 5th must file their name and $1 fee with City Clerk A. A. Merrick before Apr. 24.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50
