

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Baseball Saturday at Harmon Field

Lynn vs Bostick. 3:30 p. m.

Tryon 7th Grade Presents Tonight O Cho San or The Stolen Jade

CHARACTERS

O Cho San, daughter of wealthy merchant	Rachel Jackson
Taro, her brother	J. T. Green
O Yana San, cousin of O Cho San	Leuna Burrell
O Waki San, O Cho San's best friend	Alene Ward
O Taki San, younger sister of O Waki San	Sara Rion
O Lo San, who likes to spread excitement	Georgia Screven
Len Lo, friend of O Lo San	Dorothy Durham
Saburo, friend of O Cho San	Ethel Clark
Story Teller	Sam Cawthray
Officers	Archie Burrell and Elmer Wilson
Another Officer, who likes sensation	Dean Shields
Paper Man	Brownlow Parker
Servant of Story Teller	Charles Lankford
Beggar	Charles Stackhouse
Two Coolies	Edgar Ballew and Jennings Ford
Chorus	Members of Grade

Scene One: A Japanese Street Fair

Scene Two: Same Street on the following morning

Taxpayers Association Formed Here

About 80 taxpayers met today noon in Tryon at Oak Hall with the Rotary, Kiwanis and Chamber of Commerce. An association was formed to co-operate with and assist the county officials in getting efficiency in the management of county affairs, to reduce and equalize taxes and to strengthen the county credit. The chair appointed a nominating committee composed of George Cathey, J.S. Massenburg and R.O. Andrews, who named the following directors of the organization: B. S. Sharp, C. M. Gottfried, F. P. Bacon, C. P. Rogers, F. W. Blanton, W. S. Green, Ralph S. Jackson. These directors will elect a president and complete the organization.