

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Dr. Little, Commencement Speaker Tonight at School

The Senior graduation exercises of Tryon High School will be held tonight at 8:15 at follows:

Processional	Mrs. Walter Jones
Invocation	Dr. E. E. Bomar
Music	High School Chorus
Salutatory Address	Margaret Kerhulas
Commencement Address	Dr. Luther Little
Piano Solo	Margaret Kerhulas
Presentation of Diplomas	Mr. Douglas S. Blois
Valedictory Address	Elizabeth Avant
Music	Senior Class

Bee Meetings

Two meetings for beekeepers will be held Thursday, May 28. First at T. E. McKee's at Green River dam at 9:30 a. m. Second at Gilreath Brothers, Saluda at 2:30 p.m. C. L. Sams, specialist of Raleigh will discuss bee management.

"Cotton Show" at Saluda

SALUDA, May 25.—In accordance with the movement to stimulate the use of cotton goods throughout the South, the Saluda Book club is staging a "Cotton Show," to be given at the school auditorium Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.—Asheville Citizen.

Large Crowd at Singing

One of the largest crowds ever gathered in Landrum attended the all-day singing at the First Baptist church, Sunday.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50
