

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Florida Passes Race Bill

Both houses of the Florida legislature have overridden the veto of Gov. Carlton, and Florida soon will have horse racing with pari-mutuel betting.

Baseball Here Saturday

Lynn and Balfour hook up for a game Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field. Wilkie Capps is manager of the local team.

Poultry Shipment Monday

Columbus, Columbus Mercantile, . . .	7:30	A.M.
Mill Spring, Egerton's Store, . . .	9:00	A.M.
Sandy Plains, Whiteside's Store, . . .	10:30	A.M.
Cross Keys, Fagan's Store, . . .	11:45	A.M.
Passion, Branscom's Store, . . .	12:45	P.M.
Melvin Hill, Blackwood's Store, . . .	1:45	P.M.
New Hope, McGinnis' Store, . . .	2:45	P.M.
Aboline, Wilkins' Store, . . .	3:30	P.M.

Any of the following bulletins on poultry will be sent you upon request: How to Cull; Feeding for Eggs Production and Fattening Fowls; Common Diseases of Poultry; Breeds of Chickens; Brood Coops; Capons and Caponizing; Turkey Raising in N. C.; How to Preserve Egg; Feeding Formulas. Plans on hand for brooder and laying houses. Write for any of the above.--J. W. Artz.

Crowds at Comerco Opening

A crowd of approximately 600 people attended the opening of the new store Comerco in Cooper's Gap yesterday. 100 pounds of coffee were given away to the first 100 families represented at the opening. String music was furnished by the Barnett band and Miss Nellie Rushing of Tryon. Free drinks and sandwiches were served during the day. The new store will give Cooper's Gap a modern store with bigger resources