

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N. C. SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

A Religion For These Times

These are times that try men's souls. One is like a man rowing against the rapids and pulling hard. SO--is there a religion for these times, peculiarly adapted to one's needs just now? Dr. Clark is going to say what he thinks this Sunday morning in Erskine Church. Come and see if you agree with him. One hour service beginning eleven o'clock sharp.

Mrs. A. L. Berry

will teach the Adult Bible Class. A great opportunity to listen to a wonderful teacher, known to large classes in Chicago and elsewhere. Be one of her class tomorrow in Erskine Church at 9:45---lesson begins at 10.

At The Churches Sunday

METHODIST: 11 a.m. Rev. O. L. Robinson preaching on "Christian Assurance."

BAPTIST: 11 a.m. Dr. Bomar. preaching, Subject "Blessed are they who believe". B. Y. P. U. at 7. p.m. Preaching again at 8 by Dr. Bomar. Subject: "First Ripe Fruit".

PRESBYTERIAN: Saluda 10 a.m. Subject: "The Governing Purpose" Rev. McGeachy preaching. Tryon at 8 p. m. Subject "The Promised Blessing."

Sheriff Captures Prisoner

James Everhart, charged with stealing from the M. A. Pace store at Saluda, escaped from Columbus jail early Friday morning. Sheriff Wilkins began searching for him as soon as he discovered the prisoner had gone. From his automobile he saw the negro riding a freight train. The Sheriff boarded the train at Saluda and rode on to Hendersonville where he had the prisoner arrested.

Columbus Revival Begins

Revival services begin Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Columbus Presbyterian church with Rev. A.T.Lassiter of Clayton, N.C. preaching.