

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Appalachian Hand Weavers Buys Mountain Industries

Mr. F. P. Bacon today announced the purchase of the Mountain Industries Gift Shop, from Mrs. W. B. Stone, a pioneer in gathering the mountain-made gifts. The Appalachian Hand Weavers, makers of the well-known Tryon Homespun, will continue the business of the Mountain Industries such as rugs, baskets, wool and cotton homespun, pottery, hosiery, and the regular line of gift shop merchandise. t

West-Davidson Marriage

Miss Nellie Davidson and Mr. William West were married Sunday afternoon about 3:30 in Greenville, S.C. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott. Those attending the wedding from here were Misses Gertrude West and Ida Carnegie, and Messrs. Jack Ford and John Martin. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Davidson of Tryon, and the groom is a son of Mrs. C. C. West of Columbus, with whom the couple will make their home. The groom is connected with the Columbus Mercantile Co. X

Kiwanis Tuesday

at 1 o'clock at Mimosa Inn.

Hogback Advertising Tryon

The Spartanburg Herald-Journal Sunday had an article about Hogback and the mountain resorts which was very encouraging. A number of out of town papers are using Hogback as the starter to renewed interest in mountain resort developments on a more stable plan.

Wilson-Foster Marriage

Mr. Charlie Wilson and Miss Mattie Foster were married Saturday Spartanburg. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Foster the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Wilson, with whom the couple will live on Tryon Route 1.