

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1931 Est. 1-31-28

Emerys Bound Over

Charged with conspiracy to commit murder defendants Jim, Bill, and Ben Emery and Albert Gosnell were given a preliminary hearing yesterday in Hendersonville and were bound over to the November term of Federal court at Asheville. All four gave bond. The men live near Hogback.

Baseball Thursday

Lynn and Davis Station will play baseball Thursday afternoon at Harmon Field at 3 o'clock. The boys will play every Thursday if a large crowd shows its appreciation by attending.

4-H Club Members at Camp

Asheville Citizen

Columbus, June 23.—A company of 25 4-H club boys and girls from Polk county, accompanied by Miss Florence Cox, county home agent, and John W. Artz, county farm agent, left Tuesday morning for the 4-H club camp on the Swannanoa River, near Asheville, where they will spend four days. While on the trip, the club members will visit the Hendersonville curb market, the Asheville-Hendersonville airport, the Biltmore Dairy farms, the Asheville Recreation park, Grove Park Inn, and the State test farm at Swannanoa. In camp, recreational and inspirational exercises will be enjoyed.

Tryon Negro Is Painfully Hurt

SALUDA, June 23. Jesse Seigler, negro, of Tryon, was painfully injured in an automobile wreck Tuesday afternoon just outside the town limits of Saluda. Seigler, who was driving the car, was taken to the hospital in Tryon. Other occupants of the car, a negro man and a negro woman, were unhurt. They claim that a car, bearing a South Carolina license tag, crowded them off the road, their car turning over down an embankment.—Asheville Citizen.

Unique Money Raising

The Columbus Baptist church women are undaunted in their efforts to raise money needed for church work. The latest plan on foot is the organized effort to collect 100,000 Octagon soap wrappers for which the company will pay $500. They request the support of the public.

Tryon Colored Baseball team plays Spindale tomorrow at 3:30, Riverside Park.