

Saluda In Pageant

Asheville Citizen

SALUDA, June 23—To the martial music of the gay Spanish adventurers, members of the Saluda dramatic club presented the march of Fernanndo De Soto through western North Carolina as the Saluda episode in the annual Rhododendron pageant yesterday evening. Mrs. C. L. Hill, director of the club, and her assistants made all the costumes for this episode, fashioned the swords and armor that lent color to one of the most dramatic and gripping scenes in the wild history of the mountain country. A cast of 60 people, more than one tenth of the population of Saluda were in this presentation.

W. B. Weigel, of Tryon, N. C., gave an interesting address on the changes in Hawaii during the past 100 years before the Rotary club luncheon Tuesday. Mr. Weigel was in the islands in 1898 and again last year, and declared that much of Hawaii has been destroyed for commercial purposes. The original Hawaiian race of 200,000 has been reduced to 20,000 and there are more Japanese on the islands than any other race. Spartanburg Herald

Misses Bertha Williams and Mary Foster are attending the C. E. Convention at Charlotte.

The stores of Tryon may close all day Saturday, July 4th. Only one store has to wait for a decision. This will give two consecutive holidays for merchants and their families who may like a week-end trip.

Sara and Ray Word of Lawrence are visiting Mary Alice and Alfred Buchanan.
