
An Ad in the Bulletin Pays better than direct by mail.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N. C. SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Officers Raid Still

Columbus, N. C., July 10.—A raid by Rural Officers C. E. Carruth and Joe Turpin near Blackstock school two miles west of Landrum here yesterday netted the capture of a 60-gallon still, It was a steamer outfit, which had been in operation a short time before but the distillers had abandoned the plant.

Spartanburg Herald

At The Churches

EPISCOPAL: Holy Communion 8:00 a.m. Morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN: At 10 a.m. at Saluda and 11:15 at Tryon The Communion. 8:00 p.m. Columbus, "The Requirements".

FIRST BAPTIST: Preaching 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Subjects, God's Love" and "What Jesus said about Heaven and Hell". Sunday school 10 a.m. B.Y.P.U. 7:15 p.m.

CONGREGATIONAL: 10 a.m. Mrs. Berry teaching.

Kiwanis Meets Tuesday

at Mimosa Inn at 1 p.m. J.S.Massenburg in charge.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50
