

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Kiwanis Meets Tonight

7:30 at Mimosa Inn.

Firemen Meet Tonight

A Call Meeting of the Tryon Volunteer Fire Department will be held tonight at 7:30 at the City Hall.

You May Win $5,000.00

A Kelvinator Comparison campaign has started with $5,000 as the chief prize. 35 other prizes valued to $20,000. Read the Advertisement on page two and get a copy of the rules from Mr. S. L. Austin of the Southern Public Utilities Co. 100 people entering this contest from Tryon would help give the city some publicity if nothing else, and you may win a prize.

Mill Spring Baptist Revival

Is now in progress with Rev. C. B. Trammel preaching and a special song leader directing the music. Service begins at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.

Fight At Colored Cafe

Joe Carson, colored, is in St. Lukes hospital with two broken ribs as a result of a fight in Furman Miller's Cafe Saturday night. Lynn Carson, Joe's father, swore out a state warrant yesterday against Osborne Armstrong, said to have thrown a brick at Joe and broke his ribs. Joe's mother says her boy didn't do anything. Armstrong gave bond.

Colored Baseball News

Tryon's colored team defeated Tucapau yesterday there 6-5. Alf Payne hit out of the park with two on base. Headersonville will play here Wednesday and Shelby here Thursday.