

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Published every day except Sunday
Seth M. Vining, Editor
Subscription $1.50 year

WEATHER BY POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Local thundershowers tonight and Friday except fair on the coast tonight.

Another setting of Pheasant eggs for the Carolina Mt. Club was hatched yesterday at Lester Wilson's chicken yard. The little pheasants run from the hen the first day, but later respond to her clucking. Instinct teaches them it aint their ma, but education makes them forget and follow the hen. Look how dumb the hen is: With all her chicken education she sits on strange little eggs and mothers queer little birds.

Charles and Willard Nessmith and Roy Blackwell returned last night after a few days visit in Atlanta.

Thomas Blackwell left today to join the navy in Asheville from there he will go to Raleigh and Hampton Road.

Anniversary Cakes Pastries

Party Orders, our specialty.

Neal's Bakerette

184 E. Main St.

Phone 2723

GOLF CLUBS

Repaired and returned promptly

Also clubs built to suit the individual-- and match sets made to order.

Complete line of bags and clubs.

Golf Instructions

Jack Jolley, Golf Professional
Box 339, Hendersonville, N. C.

We Buy Your

Poultry, Eggs, Cream and Forest Products

And Offer

EXCELLENT VALUES IN Flour, Feeds, Seeds and Groceries

$900,000.00 in cash paid to the Farmers of Western North Carolina by the Federation for their products during the last two years.

FARMERS FEDERATION, INC.

Phone 62

Tryon, N.C.