

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

---

Romeo and Juliet Reserve Tickets Sold at Missildine's

Reserve seat tickets. Get them now. Show Thursday night.

Hear John Landrum

The Kiwanis club turned out 100 percent today to hear Pres. John G. Landrum give a short autobiography of his life. (At the club's request.) Visitors making talks: W. B. Stone of Charlotte, W. J. Nesbit of Mill Spring and M. R. McCown of Tryon.

Polk Takes 2nd Prize

At State Fair last week Mr. Artz and Miss Cox again brought honor to this county. Last year they won 4th place. This year nothing but 2nd prize of $200 would satisfy them. Cleveland Co. won first prize 60 farmers co operated with the agents. 17 individual farmers won prizes totaling $34.50. Mr. Artz and Miss Cox appreciate the help given them.

Escaped Convict Caught

Raymond Pace, said to be an escaped convict, was arrested Saturday in Saluda, was put in Columbus jail. Yesterday he forced the assistant jailor at point of a razor to give him the jail keys. Last night he was re-arrested near Landrum. He was in prison for housebreaking. Under 4 year sentence. Was married in Columbus jail before going to the prison sometime ago.

---

Football Friday!

With Inman, May be last game of season at Harmon Field.