
The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Rev. A. T. Jones Dead

Former Polk county minister died Monday, 3 p.m., at his home near North Pacolet following sudden illness. He was 87. Funeral Wednesday 3 p.m. at N.Pacolet church. Survived by his widow and following children: Mrs. J.F.Jackson of Inman, J.J. and A.A. Jones of Spartanburg, W.D.Jones of Campobello, Miss Rose Jones of Spartanburg, Pat Jones of Campobello and Miss Ruby Jones of Greenwood.

Avon Players Make Hit

Supt. W.A.Schilleter received telegram this morning from Tocoa, Ga. Supt. stating that Romeo and Juliet play was a success in every way last night at Tocoa. The same cast will perform in Tryon school auditorium Thursday night. Admission- Students 50c; Adults 75c. Reserve seats $1.

Escalus, Prince of Verona
Paris
Montague
Capulet
Romeo
Mercutio
Benvolio
Tybalt
Friar Lawrence
Balthasar
Peter
An Apothecary
Lady Capulet
Juliet
Nurse

David Townsend
Wm. Burbridge
Rogers Torbert
Louis Lytton
Harold Selman
Joseph Selman
Frank Lester
Robert Selman
Louis Lytton
Clifford Nelson
Burgess Burnett
Chas. Landeau
Peggy Leonard
Catherine Cale
Eugenie DuBois

Roy Palmer at School

Roy A. Palmer, one of the foremost electrical illuminating engineers of America will have charge of the colorama show tonight at 8 o'clock at the Tryon School auditorium. Admission FREE. Those who have seen it say it is good,