

Mrs. A. M. Yount
Box 1033

The Bulletin is still being traded for farm products.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Sidewalk Scrapings

Saw some of Henry Acker's Tryon raised celery at Jackson's Friday. W. B. Stone chatting with Charlie Lynch boosting Charlotte as a city that's up and going, hustling and advertising for business---and getting it. Lawyer McCown suggests that we secure some of the farm land here at present low prices and give the use of it to some deserving 4-H farm boy. Judge Cloud has blossoms on his cherry tree in Columbus.

W. M. S. Meets Tuesday

The Woman's Missionary Society of Erskine Memorial church will meet at home of Mrs. Lydia Strong, Tuesday Oct. 27 at 4 p.m. All visitors are cordially invited.

Lavendar at Kiwanis

J. Lee Lavendar, Columbus attorney, will address the Tryon Kiwanis club Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Mimosa Inn.

Hurt In Auto Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Swann and granddaughter, Betty Jean Panther were overturned in an auto Sunday morning on the highway in the Valley near the Holiness church. Mr. Swann was severely cut and Mrs. Swann painfully bruised, Betty Jean not injured. The car was considerably wrecked.

Juniors Meet Here

The next district meeting of J.O.U.A.M. will be held in Tryon next year. T. W. Ballew and D. A. Shields were delegates attending the Junior convention in Asheville last week. The convention will bring to Tryon delegates from all over Western North Carolina.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50