

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Hon. Grayson Arledge Dies

Former Polk County legislator died yesterday afternoon at his home in Mill Spring. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 at Mill Spring Baptist church. Four children survive: Mrs. Will R. Walker of Tryon, Mrs. W.M. Walker of Mill Spring, Mrs. A.H. Elliott of Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Jim Haddon of Asheville. Mr. Arledge was 83 years old. Born in Polk county. Brother of the late John Arledge who was register deeds for many years.

Jim Thompson Buried

Mr. Jim Thompson was buried this afternoon at Mill Spring Methodist church. He was the father of H.E. and Grover Thompson, and a brother of Commissioner Granville Thompson.

Funeral for Mrs. E. W. Green

Mrs. Elbert Green of Mill Spring RFD, was buried yesterday at Big Level cemetery. Mrs. Green was found dead in bed. Her husband and one daughter, Mrs. John Garrett survive.

Tryon Loses to Blue Ridge

Hendersonville, Nov. 5: The Blue Ridge Hilltoppers subdued a fighting Tryon high team here this afternoon, 38 to 0. Tryon staged a great fight against the heavier Blue Ridge team but their defense cracked in the final quarter. Defensive work of Thomas Blackwell who backed up the line for the visitors was great, and Palmer and J. Blackwell were also outstanding. J. Blackwell gave one of the best punting exhibitions ever staged here. He averaged almost 50 yards on half a dozen kicks.

'Possum & 'Taters Tõnite

About 20 big, fat o'possums have been kept up for a month for the big possum supper tonight at Landrum Baptist church dining room. The price is 40c a plate and includes all the delicious accessories. Supper begins at 6 o'clock, so call up your wife now and make a date with her for this supper.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50