
The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Carolina Ramblers Tonight

at Tryon School. 7:30. A musical comedy featuring string band, acrobatic fiddling, black face Comedians. Popular Radio and Phonograph artists.

Tennis Tournament On

The annual fall tournament of the Tryon Tennis Assn. is being held at Lynncote. First event: Susan Rogers defeated Caroline McMillan 6-3, 6-4. Second event: Andrew Law & Waverly Hester defeated Ted Wilcox John McMillan 6 4, 2-6, 6-3. Third: J. Lee Lavendar won from John McMillan: 6-1, 6-1. FOURTH: J.S. Massenburg defeated Ted Wilcox. FIFTH: Martha Washburn defeated Catherine Johnson 8-6, 6-3. SIXTH: Constance Burtenshaw defeated Mrs. Marion Coudert 6-3. 6-1. Other events will be published as played.

Closed Nov. 11

Majority of the Business houses of Tryon, Columbus and Landrum will close Wednesday commemorating the Armistice.

School Armistice Program

Tryon School will close tomorrow noon after the following program which begins at 11: "Revelie" by Ethan Rippy; "Star Spangled Banner" by audience. Prayer by Dr. D. P. McGeachy. "Tableau" by 8th grade. Review of Causes of War by Mary Denfel. Flag Drill by 1st. Grade. Patriotic Song by 2nd Grade. Play "Melting Pot" by Grammar School. Recitation: "Armistice" by 10th Grade. "Taps" by Ethan Rippy, Public invited. Seats reserved for Ex.Service men.