
The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Miss Cox at Rotary

Miss Florence Cox, County Home Demonstrator, will be the principal speaker at the Rotary club. Friday, 1 p.m. at Oak Hall. Miss Cox is doing a great work in the County.

P. T. A. Party Monday

8 p.m., Nov. 16. At the School. An old fashion square dance. Games. Spelling bee. Lots of fun. Violin music by Vernon Tanner accompanied with the piano by his mother. A voice soloist also from Spartanburg.

Silent Sam Here Friday

People blocked the streets in Charleston recently to see Silent Sam, the Mechanical Man, who will be in the Tryon Motor Co. show room Friday night from 8 to 9:15 for the public to see. Is he wax or real? A $5 gold piece if you can make him smile.

4-H Club Fair Saturday

at Columbus, 10 a.m. to 3:30. $190 in prizes besides ribbons. Judges Ruth Carrant, Raleigh, State expert; Mrs. Wallace, Shelby; E. B. Jones, Hendersonville, Dale Thrash of Asheville. There are 475 Members of the club in Polk, and have made excellent records under leadership of Miss Cox and Mr. Artz. 4-Hs mean HEAD for clear thinking; HEART for greater loyalty; HAND for larger service; HEALTH for better living.

Red Cross Drive On

Miss Mary Sharp, Roll Call Chairman is heading an active committee for Red Cross members. Mrs. Chas. Wilson has a booth in the Postoffice, and her motto is "They shall not pass." Both drug stores are recruiting stations and high pressure salesmen will visit the homes. Relief for human suffering touches us all, & our pocket books.

TryLan Lost to Rutherfordton, 19-0 in football yesterday at Rutherfordton. May play Union next.