

The Bulletin is still being traded for farm products.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Massenburg at Kiwanis

J. S. Massenburg will be the principal speaker at Kiwanis Tuesday, 1 p. m. at Mimosa Inn.

P. T. A. Party Tonight

Big crowd expected tonight at 8 o'clock at the school house. Short musical program. Square dance. Lots of fun.

Tennis Events Progressing

Events during week-end: MEN'S SINGLES, A.M. Law defeated J.H. Rion 6-1, 6-0; J.S. Massenburg defeated Law 6-1, 6-4. MEN'S DOUBLES, F.P. Bacon & Massenburg defeated C.P. Rogers & J.L. Lavendar 3-6, 7-5, 6-4. LADIES SINGLES: C. Burtenshaw defeated S. Rogers 6:1, 8:6. MIXED DOUBLES, S. Rogers & C. Rogers defeated C. Johnson & P. Luckey 6-1, 6:0.

This is Book Week

and a number of Tryon stores dressed their windows to represent certain books. See if you can interpret them. Many posters have been made teaching the value of books as friends, and aids to happiness. From what book is this quotation: "Now that's something like! Why, it's a million times hullier than pirating. I'll stick to the widder till I rot, Tom; and if I get to be a regular ripper of a robber, and everybody talking 'bout it, I reckon she'll be proud she snake me in out of the wet".

Interesting Chapel Program

Mrs. E.G. Holden and Mr. E. W. Frost will speak Wednesday at Tryon School at 10:30 a.m. Friday, the Second grade will put on a program.

Join The Red Cross!