

The Bulletin is still being traded for farm products.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

“Japan in Manchuria”

will be Major Sharp's timely subject Friday at the Rotary club at Oak Hall, at 1 p. m. Any guest desiring to hear this interesting talk should get in touch with the hotel for a reserved seat.

Columbus Wants Silk Mill

and may get it if present plans go through.

A Pennsylvania raw silk mill wants to move South. Columbus has the mill almost persuaded to come to Polk county and occupy the cotton mill building. A visit was made to mill officers yesterday by a committee composed of D.D.Pattie, P. S. White, Lindsey Smith, P. S. Lewis, Allen Hines, W. A. Bridges, W. T. Hammett, J. Lee Lavendar. The mill would employ 80 people; payroll about $1,000.

Oyster Supper Saturday

At Columbus school, 6 to 8 p. m. Benefit Polk County Library, Price 35c. Oyster stew or fry. Also chicken salad. Public invited. Anyone having children's books to donate may bring them to the supper.

Sonny Boy Here Friday & Sat.

at Tryon School at 8 p.m. An interesting silent movie substituted for “Daddy Long Legs” during Book Week. Admission 10 and 25c.

Quartet At Columbus Baptist

The Asheville Normal Teachers' college quartet will sing at the Columbus Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. That night, the quartet will sing at the Lynn Baptist church. The Rev. Charles B. Trammell, is pastor of both churches.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50