

The Bulletin is still being traded for farm products.

---

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

---

Auto Turns Over

Miss Maude Nealy was carried to St. Lukes hospital yesterday afternoon painfully bruised as a result of her turning over into a deep fill near Bird Mt. Service Station.

Sonny Boy Tonight at School

A silent Movie recommended by United Artists as an outstanding picture will be shown tonight at the Tryon School house at 8 o'clock. Admission 10 and 25c.

Married

Miss Mabel Barber daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Barber of Mill Spring and Mr. Carl Edwards son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Edwards, were married Wednesday at Spartanburg.

Machine Fall on Man

Mr. James Ruppe of Landrum is at the hospital suffering severe cuts about the head as a result of a pea thrasher falling on him.

Man Run over at Intersection

Mr. John Murdock of Tryon was run over this morning by an automobile driven by Spence McCarroll near the intersection at the Tryon Motor Co. Mr. Murdock was severely bruised and taken to the hospital.

---

The Bulletin One Year $1.50