Yellow Trouble Explained

Maj. B. S. Sharp gave an interesting explanation of the causes of the present Sino-Japanese War yesterday in his talk at the Rotary club. Going back 4,000 years ago in the history of the two nations the speaker told of their characteristics and economic conditions. Japan, over populated and intensely patriotic seeks expansion in Manchuria. Chinese thinking of individual selves first, have allowed jealous foreigners special rights. Although passive and disorganized nationally, the Chinese are effective in boycotting Japanese goods. In Manchuria the Chinese-Russians and the Japanese own railroads, creating competition. Japan claims that China owes her for her roads and won't pay. The demands of Japan from time to time has increased the hatred of China. Rioting occurs, causing occupation of Manchuria by Japs. Japan has lost about 500 men and to save her face can't withdraw troops. China won't talk peace until Japan withdraws. In the mean time China rejects all Japanese goods. This talk should be given at the School house so that more people could benefit from it. Major Sharp served in Orient and is a student of public affairs.
