

The Bulletin is still being traded for farm products.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Union Thanksgiving Service
Thursday, 11 a.m. at Tryon Presbyterian church.
Dr. John Brittan Clark preaches the sermon.
Public invited.

Saluda Firm Bankrupt

G. L. Thompson, of Saluda, doing business as the Thompson Grocery company, has filed voluntary petition in bankruptcy with J. Y. Jordan, Sr., clerk of United States district court. Mr. Thompson claims business and personal insolvency. He has listed his liabilities at $19,699.56 and his assets at $11,693.17. A long list of small debts had accumulated against his business, forcing this action.

Seniors Hear Kiwanians

The chances for the right kind of boy are as good as they ever were, said the Kiwanis speakers today to eight boys of the high school senior class who were invited guests. Know what you want, be sure you are talented for it, have the perseverance to follow the course you have chosen regardless of hard knocks, study constantly to have a thorough knowledge of your work, learn to love service for others, be courteous and considerate of others and there will be room for you at the top.

The Speakers were: Dr. J. B. Clark, J. S. Massenburg, P. S. White, L. A. Avant, John Landrum. Guests were: Walter Newman, Fred Swann, Tip Jervey, Marion Palmer, Fred Ravan, Thos. Jones. Other guests, P. S. White, W. A. Schilleter, Fred Swann, Sr.

Fortnightly Thursday Night

The Bulletin One Year $1.50