

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

---

Mr. Bud Rollins Dead

Mr. J. G. "Bud" Rollins died this morning at his home at Melrose. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at Friendship church. His wife and several children survive.

Parish Meeting Tonight

The annual Parish Meeting of Holy Cross Parish will be held in the parish hall tonight at 8 o'clock. All attending the services or interested in the work of the Parish are urged to be present. New Vestry will be elected, wardens appointed and reports for the year given. Important business to be considered.

Kiwanis Tuesday

At Mimosa Inn. 1 p.m. W.H. Stearns, chief speaker.

Fire Call Sunday

The Tryon Fire department was called to the home of Mrs. Alice K. Missildine Sunday about 10:30. Sparks from the chimney ignited the roof, but the flame was soon extinguished with small damage.

"The Big Parade"

Famous War Picture produced for the talkies, is being shown tonight and tomorrow at the Community Theater.

---

Bulletin $1.50 a Year

---