

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1932. Est. '31-28

---

Dance At Country Club

A square dance will be held tonight at the Country Club. Public invited.

Tryon P. T. A. Monday

Dr. Hanford Henderson will address the Tryon P. T. A. Monday afternoon at the School auditorium.

Today's News Headlines

U. S. Supreme Court Justice Holmes resigns at age of 90 on account of poor health. Dr. Steedly, noted Chick Springs surgeon dead. Blizzard sweeping Western states. Congress committee will hear impeachment charges against Secretary Mellon Thursday. Temperature is 12 degrees below in Montana, while it is between 70 and 80 above in Tryon.

Drama Fortnightly Tonight

"The Dover Road", a comedy by A. A. Milne will be presented tonight at the Parish House under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Bingham. Admission 50c.

N.C. W.C.T.U. President Here

The Annual National "Victory Day" service will be held in the Parish House, Fri. Jan. 15 at 8 o'clock, Mrs. W. B. Lindsay of Charlotte State President of the W.C.T.U. will be the speaker. All are invited.

Scout Executives Meet

An Annual meeting of the Piedmont Council of the Boy Scouts was held at Gastonia last night. Three Hundred substantial men were in attendance that the reports indicated that last year was the most successful in the history of the council. This Council has 1650 enrolled Scouts, being exceeded in the South only by Atlanta, and the cost per capita is only two-thirds of that of the next most economical Council. Enthusiastic appreciation was shown of the services of Mr. and Mrs. Schiele, the Scout Executives. Dr. Jervey was one of four awarded "Silver Beaver" medals, in recognition of outstanding assistance to the movement.