

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. MONDAY, JANUARY 18, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

Garden Club Meets

The Garden Club will meet with Miss Harriet Taylor Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Miss Ann Nash will have charge of the program.

Barber - Cairns Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cairns announce the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine, to Mr. Edward M. Barber of Waynesville, on August 2nd, at Carnesville, Ga.

Today's News Headlines

Frank L. Stanton, Jr. the inspiration of his father's poem "Mighty Lak a Rose" was killed yesterday in an auto crash. Ex-Congressman John Langley dies of pneumonia. 14 girls in India jailed. Japs kill hundreds in China.

Hunt Club Re-Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Riding and Hunt Club at Pine Crest Inn Friday night heard good reports of last years activities and made plans for the immediate season. The old officers were re-elected as follows: President Samuel A. Bingham, Vice: President Fred J. McDonald, Secretary Treasurer Chas. J. Lynch Mrs. John Washburn re-elected trustee for two years to serve with C.P. Brown and W.H. Stearns. Further announcements later.

Colored Jubilee Singers

A contest between Forest City, Marion, Spartanburg, and Tryon quartet will be held Thursday night, January 21, at 8:15 at the Tryon Colored High School. Come early and get your seat. Our white friends are expected. Admission 15 and 25c.

LOOK OUT!

We have been informed that the concrete has been poured over the new road at Bird Mt and shutting Tryon off from Landrum and Spartanburg unless you travel an old, old, road beginning at the Lake Lanier entrance and going by Bob Parker's. Cars bog up to the hub, it is said.