

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

At Kiwanis Today

C. J. Lynch reported on the District Trustees meeting held at Charlotte. W. B. Weigel told of the life in British West Indies. Dr. Clark gave a tribute of recognition, honor and praise to Robert E. Lee, today being his birthday. Seth M. Vining gave an account of his own experiences.

Today's News Headlines

France insists that nations pay up. China insulted over Jap reply to U.S. Case against F.S. Wetmur dismissed. Mississippi floor waters affect 45,000 people. 14 arrested in Spartanburg for not having auto tags.

Silk Co. Buys Building

The building in Columbus formerly owned by the Cotton Mill was sold yesterday by Bacon & Ward to Katterman & Mitchell Co. who expect to operate a silk mill on the site within the next 60 days. Plans have been made to move the machinery here at once. About 100 people will be employed. Four acres of land adjoining the mill were also bought by the new concern.

Riding & Hunt Club News

New portable fence panels for jumps over steeple chase course are being provided. Foxes are being secured for races during the season. The following dates have been named for activities sponsored by the club: Gymkhana on March 30th, Horse and Hound Shows April 6th, Laurel Tilting Tournament, April 20th. New costumes and other attractive features have been added to this event.

Today is Lee's Birthday

Robert E. Lee was born 125 years ago. A great American universally honored for noble ideals.

Road Fixed

We are informed that a bridge has been placed over the new concrete road at Bird Mt. and cars are thus able to cross over the road.