

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

---

Today's News Headlines

Huey P. Long's candidates win in Louisiana election. The temperature in Asheville was 24 this morning; Isn't the weather nice here? B. P. Bower, Denver baker, kidnapped and held for $50,000 ransom. Politics getting active all over the United States.

Lake Lanier Picture Wanted

Mr. Carter Brown has received a request from Sports and Field Magazine for a picture of Lake Lanier to be used in that magazine. Anyone having a good picture, please get in touch with Mr. Brown.

Lynn to Hear Lectures

The Lynn Letoli Club for girls is beginning a series of vocational lectures Friday at 3:45 P.M. at Lynn church. The first lecture will be on "Opportunities of service in the Field of Nursing" by Mrs. Emily Pass: more Nesbitt. Dr. Rosa Ganrt will speak February 9th on "The Field of Medicine" Other vacations will presented from time to time. Girls and young women from over the County are invited to attend

Floyd Gibbons Tonight

Noted war correspondent will speak tonight over the NBC studios from Mukden, Manchuria. He will tell about the present war and introduce a Japanese general. Tune in at 7:15 if you want to hear him.

Let's Have a Mut Dog Show

It has been suggested that Tryon have a Mutt dog show this spring. No registered dogs to enter. Only those of questionable ancestry. Every one in the community with a common dog would be invited to make entry. There would be lots of fun.

---

Bulletin $1.50 a Year

---