Mrs. Mack Morris of Rutherfordton is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. Green while Dr. Green is in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Miss Margaret Kerhulas has returned to Winthrop College after a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kerhulas.

Folks are very high in their praise for the Community Theater. Interesting programs easily seen and heard. A train was shown last night and the sounds were so natural that many thought a train had arrived at the Tryon depot.

Mr. B. L. Long of Hendersonville has taken over the Real Silk territory here formerly held by Mr. W. W. Beacham of Greenville. Mr. Long is at the Edgewood Inn for several days.

I will be at the Edgewood Inn Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday representing the Real Silk Hosiery Mills. Will be glad to have you ring 167 for appointment. B. L. Long

Miss Ola Mae McFee was called to Greenville, S.C. yesterday on account of the illness of her grandfather, Mr. John G. Gilreath.

WEATHER: Fair and warmer tonight and Thursday.
