
The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 4 TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

Today's News Headlines

Bandits get $12,000 from Jacksonville, Fla. bank. Danger of disease in Mississippi flood area. Building of highway to Landrum stopped until March, it is said. Saluda people give a play tonight "Deestrick Skule Up-To-Date".

WEATHER: Cloudy and warmer tonight, probably showers; colder Saturday.

The Auxiliaries of W.N.C. diocese of the Episcopal church will meet Feb. 17 in Tryon.

Mrs. Massenburg Dies

TRYON, N. C. Jan. 22. Mrs. J. S. Massenburg died here this afternoon at 1:30 at St. Lukes hospital following an illness of two weeks from streptococic infection of the throat complicated by general septicemia.

The body will be taken to Oak Forest plantation in Wake County for burial in the family cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Massenburg before her marriage was Miss Ellen Colburn Seawell of Raleigh and Wake Forest. She was born Oct. 17, 1900. Was married Oct. 15, 1927 to Mr. James S. Massenburg, former member of the legislature from Franklin county and the present attorney for Polk County and the Town of Tryon. Mr. and Mrs. Massenburg came to Tryon three years ago from Hendersonville where they lived for two years.

Mrs. Massenburg was a graduate of Peace Institute and of the North Carolina College for Women. She is survived by her husband, two small children, James S. Jr. age 3 and Edward Seawell age 5 months, her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Seawell of Raleigh; four brothers: Edward C. Richard, and Kenan of Raleigh and Henry of Charlotte; two sisters: Misses Elizabeth and Octavia Seawell of Raleigh, two aunts, Mrs. M. D. Hall of Fairfax, Va. and Miss Miriam Seawell of Raleigh.

The remains will be shipped from Spartanburg at 6:30 Saturday morning. There will be no service here.