

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 5      TRYON, N.C. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1932      Est. 1-31-28

---

Jackson's Car Stripped And Hollowed Out

Cadger Jackson's car was stolen recently. Officers trailed it through Spartanburg county. The remains was located yesterday about four and a half miles from Inman, S.C. in the Cleveland woods. The motor, radiator, spare wheels, transmission, windshield and other "necessaries" were stripped from the car leaving nothing but the tin shell and chasis to bring back to Tryon.

Panther-Hardin Marriage

Mr. Lloyd Panther and Miss Bertha Hardin of Lynn were married this afternoon at Spartanburg. After a brief honeymoon in South Carolina they will return to Lynn to make their home. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Hattie Hardin.

Dr. Jervey at Rotary

Dr. A. J. Jervey will be the chief speaker at the Rotary luncheon, Friday, 1 p.m., at Oak Hall.

Child Swallows Kerosene

Horace, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Smith, was taken to the hospital this morning for treatment. He swallowed some kerosene. Will go home tonight.

---

Community Theatre
TODAY AND THURSDAY

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

in

"It's Tough to be Famous"

with MARY BRIAN

---