

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

---

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

---

Vol. 5

TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1932

Est. 1-31-28

---

Inka Plays Here Saturday For Tight Base Ball Game

A close game of baseball between Tryon and Inka at Harmon Field will be played Saturday afternoon. Tryon is second in the league and beat Inka last time 4 to 3, so you can see how evenly matched the teams are. Amos Foster will pitch. Tryon lost to Inman yesterday 3 to 0 in a 11 inning pitchers battle between Ravan of Tryon and Hawkins of Inman.

Cooking Meet A Success

The Electric Range Cooking Demonstration conducted by Mrs. Leila A. Fleming at the Southern Public Utilities Co. was a success. About 50 people attended and learned new ways of fixing tempting dishes economically and quicker. Prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. F.W. Blanton, crab meat cocktail and pyrex cooking dishes; Mrs B.B. Flynn, electric grill; Mrs. Lillian M. Cain, meat loaf; Miss Myrtle Pack, baked apples.

Rotary Reviews Revolution

Dr. Bomar, Frank D. Moore, and F.P. Bacon gave brief talks on the Revolutionary war in the Carolinas today at the Rotary Club.

---

Community Theatre
FRIDAY & SATURDAY

"A Holy Terror"

with

George O'Brien

---

Bulletin $1.50 a Year