
The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1932.

Est. 1-31-28

Community Theater Closes

The Community Theater will close for an indefinite period with the last showing of "Heaven on Earth" Saturday night, June 25th, according to a statment by Mgr. C. W. Nessmith.

Dr. Smith at Rotary

Dr. L. Smith of the Spartanburg Baby hospital gave an instructive talk at the Rotary club today on the prevention of diseases.

Golt Tourney Soon

The annual 4th of July Golf Tournament at the Tryon Country Club begins July 2, 3, 4th. A number of trophies will be awarded. A large crowd is expected for the three days and includes a number of prominent players.

Miss Mary Crapo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.T. Crapo of Tryon and Detroit, has been elected president of the Junior class at Vassar college.

Politics Active Again

E. B. Cloud and J. S. Massenburg are out for the Legislature in the second primary. Reynolds for Senate is making great headway against Morrison, the present incumbent.

IT'S ALWAYS COOL AT THE—

Community Theatre
TODAY

Lew Ayres

in

"Heaven on Earth"

with ANITA LOUISE and SLIM SUMMERVILLE

Summer Prices: Children 15c; Adults 25c; Reserved Seats 40c
