S.C. Governor Wires He's Coming

Gov. Ibra C. Blackwood of South Carolina telegraphs that he will be here for the highway celebration Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field.

All Set for July 9th

All preparations are made for the big highway celebration here Saturday. The streets and stores are beautifully decorated. Oak Hall is fixed for the Ball and Mimosa for the Tea. The Contry Club and Harmon Field are ready for the guests. Cooking of the barbecue at the Field begins at 12 tonight. Secretary Ainsworth of the Spartanburg Chamber of Commerce was here this afternoon checking-up on all the plans. You can help a lot by speaking to every stranger you can. Make him want to come here again to a place so friendly.
