

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N.C. FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1932.

Est. 1-31-28

Summer Bargains Here

The Ballenger Co. opens up Saturday with a drastic reduction sale in their Dry Goods Dept. Buchanan's 5 & 10c Store has a big shipment of dishes just bought for his special sale. The Exclusive Ladies Shop, Farmers Federation, Slack's Pharmacy, Avant Electric Co. and Southern Public Utilities are making unusual offers to their customers at this time.

At Rotary Club Today

The Rev. Paxon T. Dixon, pastor of the Mill Spring Methodist church was the chief speaker at the Rotary club today at 1 p.m. at Oak Hall. He gave an interesting estimate of the food supply of rural Polk County for the coming year, and stated that the rural people would have enough to eat if the drought did not continue long. H.L. Shelnett had charge of the program.

Today's News Headlines

Marines ordered to watch Bonus Army. Drys marshal forces to make desperate stand; to use big Cannon. Tryon enjoys a delightfully cool weather compared to many other sections of the country where the temperature went above 100 in many places south and north of us. Senator Norris assails Hoover's attitude on power question.

Baseball At Harmon Field

Tryon plays Demension Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field.

Tryon All Stars Lose

The St. Petersburg, Fla. Sunshine Babies defeated the Tryon colored All Star baseball team yesterday afternoon at Riverside Park 12 to 5.

Bulletin $1.50 a Year
