Dr. Keller Comments

Ingersol said: "Life is a barren peak between the two eternities." He was mistaken. Life is a chance to do good in the heart of the endless eternity in which we now live. Doubt finds deserts in life, faith finds oases. And there are finer oases in this life of ours than any of us ever dreamed. We are now in eternity and people fit to live find fruitful farms, beautiful flower gardens not "barren peaks".
