

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5 TRYON, N.C. SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

At The Churches

METHODIST: Tryon 11 a.m. Rev. O. L. Robinson preaching. Subject "The Experience of Personal Salvation".

PRESBYTERIAN: Saluda; Rev. D. M. McGeachy preaching on "The Kingdom of Heaven" at the 11 o'clock service. Tryon; Rev. McGeachy preaching on "Steadfast Souls" at the 8 o'clock evening services.

CONGREGATIONAL; 11 a.m. Dr. Lewis H. Keller preaching on "The Soul's Open Channels—A Parable of the Sea".

FIRST BAPTIST; 11 a.m. Dr. E. E. Bomar preaching. Subject, "The Final Word". Sunday School and B.Y.P.U. as usual.

EPISCOPAL; Holy Communion 8 a.m. No other service.

Today's News Headlines

Capt. Mollison landed on North America yesterday from Ireland; he flew the Atlantic in 30 hours, 20 mins. Gov. Roosevelt denies motion to dismiss Walker charges. Two married women in New York have been flying over 123 hours continuously in an endurance contest. C. J. Lynch and Grayson Newman of Tryon attended the Blowing Rock Horse Show yesterday.

Kiwanis Picnic Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanians and former Kiwanians and families will hold a picnic Tuesday afternoon at Lake Lanier Beach.

Ball to be Big Affair

The Queen Elizabeth Ball to be held at Saluda Monday night will be featured by sponsors from ten nearby towns. Henry Litmond's 8-piece orchestra of Spartanburg will furnish the music. The Ball opens at 9 p. m. and lasts until 2 a. m.

Bulletin $1.50 a Year