Wall, two children, Frank age 9 and Calvin 4; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Johnson, two brothers, Earl and Burlen; and two sisters, Mrs. Carl T. Fortner and Mrs. Victor Scism.

Kiwanis Picnic Today

The Kiwanis picnic will be held this afternoon and evening at Lake Lanier Beach where swimming and fishing may be enjoyed. All the members were given the privilege of inviting as many guests as they wish provided they bring food for all invited. C. J. Lynch, L.A. Avant and John Landrum have charge of the affair.

Mr. Ralph Green Married

A marriage of interest to friends in many states is that of Miss Marion Smith to Mr. Ralph Green of Tryon, which was solemnized on Saturday evening, August 20, in the First Methodist church of Greenville, S. C. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lena DeShields and has lived in Hendersonville for the past several years. After being graduated from Columbia College in Columbia, S. C., she took courses at Furman University in Greenville and at the University at Chapel Hill. For two years she was a popular instructor in the Hendersonville high school. The past year was spent in dramatic work in New York. The groom received his education at the University of California and has been connected with the forestry department of that state. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green of Tryon, and is at present associated in business with his father. Hendersonville Times-News
