Dr. Keller Comments

You do not know what would happen if what has happened had not happened. Life is vast, complex. Some things we much desire would hinder, not help. In some things our own choosing would spell chaos, defeat. Paul, in prison, rules the world by his letters. The Cross, not desired, saves. Accept what comes. Make the bitter sweet. Turn defeat into success. Accept what you could not prevent. And, do not fret.
