What's the News?

That's the question ever on the lips of the Bulletin editor. Imagine how you would feel if nothing happened and you had to fill with live news as small a space as the front page of the Bulletin. It makes one worry. It is easy to fill the whole paper with just anything; but who would read it? Our policy is to stick to local news as much as we can. So please help us when you have news. The readers will appreciate it.

Played tennis and bridge yesterday; but can't mention it. People will talk; you know.

Heard Dr. Clark preach yesterday and pour it into Tammany Hall, Jimmy Walker, etc. whom he likened unto Pharaoh; then he praised Theodore "Moses" Roosevelt. A good Republican sermon, for he mentioned not Republican Bill Thompson of Chicago nor Republican governed Philadelphia. People get politically minded this time of year; fall out; then kiss and make up after election.

A letter from President Sloan of General Motors announces a coast to coast radio broadcast tribute to North Carolina on Sept. 26 from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Copy of program at Bulletin office.

Avant Electric Co. has just received a new radio with short wave apparatus which brings in stations all over the world. Saturday afternoon one of them signed off at midnight. Sounded crazy to be saying midnight when it was daylight over here.

Good Sunday School lesson yesterday; Caleb and Joshua are good examples of what is needed today: Men who have a goal, and the courage to fight for the right regardless of others opinions.

A couple from far away came to the editor's office this morning to get married. Ah! here's news, thought the editor. When asked if he had his health certificate and marriage license the applicant said, "No; do you have to have that? Isn't this South Carolina?" Nothing doing. No news, no thrill, and some disappointed witnesses who wanted to see a new Justice of the Peace get scared.

Maybe there'll be some news tomorrow.
