Perkins, all of Alabama and Mrs. T. D. Jervey and James M. Baker both of Tryon.

We Must Reduce Cost of Gov't Says J.W.Pless

Solicitor J. Will Pless was the chief speaker at Kiwanis today and told of the mounting cost of government due to Veterans Pensions from all wars. Mr. Pless, an ex-service man, believed in helping the man who suffered in the war, but does not believe in buying patriotism by dishing out money to the man who never received a scratch. He urged the Kiwanis club to start a check on useless spending by the government. J.W. Goodman of Raleigh spoke a few minutes and urged more education in government.
