

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, SEPT 30, 1932.

Est. 1-31-28

Poultry Shipment Tuesday

There will be a poultry shipment, Tuesday, Oct. 4. Stops made at Saluda, Lynn, Columbus, Mill Spring, Sunny View, Pea Ridge. J. W. Artz. in charge.

Magician at School Tonight

Garrett, world famous magician, will present his wonderland show tonight at the Tryon School auditorium. Enjoyment for old and young. Admission 10 and 25c.

Today's News Headlines

Birth Control in Canadian church urged by leaders. Four killed in train wreck in Alabama when Crescent limited hits freight. 33 drown in ship wreck near one of the Aleutian islands. The Pope denounces Mexican government for Catholic persecutions. Worst of depression is over says Secretary of Commerce.

Hambone, in today's Asheville Citizen says: "Heap o'times, how comes folks falls down, dey gits to leanin' on sump'n en de prop give way!"

October's bright blue weather is here, and our predictions are for many delightfully peppy days for hiking and picnicking.

Invite your friends to come to Tryon within the next few weeks. The leaves will be turning glorious colors.

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year