

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, OCT 3, 1932.

Est. 1-31-28

Today's News Headlines

Japs' Manchurian occupation condemned by League of Nations committee. New York Yankees beat Chicago four straight for World baseball championship. Thousands go back to work in North Alabama. Pres. Von Hindenburg of Germany was 82 yesterday. J. W. Artz will conduct a poultry route and shipment in Polk County Tuesday.

7 ft. Snake Killed

Ewette Allison of Mill Spring, Route 2, reports killing a 7 ft. black snake yesterday. The snake has been skinned and the hide will be used for belts.

Want Trees Removed

Those poplar trees at the railroad depot crossing which separates Trade St. from the railroad obstructed the view of a prominent Tryon tourist and he barely escaped losing his life the other day when he couldn't see the train as his car turned the corner and up across the railroad.

Kiwanis Tuesday

Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Mimosa Inn with C. J. Lynch in charge of the program.

Hollaand, Mich. bank robbed of $69,000. $3,000,000 on deposit in New York state banks left there for years by people who probably have forgotten about it. How can this be put back into circulation?

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year