

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT 12, 1932. Est. 1-31-28

Today's News Headlines

Coolidge urges America to retain Hoover. Congressman Weaver wants to hasten Park opening. Chicago police to seek Federal aid to bring back Samuel Insull from Greece. Dr. R. M. Graham of Columbia indicted for violating narcotics law. Polk County Republicans planning series of meetings this week.

Football at W.L.T.

The Tryon team goes to Welford, Lyman, Tucapau, Friday afternoon for a hard football game.

Interesting Kiwanis Meeting

Dr. John Brittan Clark presented an interesting program last night at Mimosa Inn showing the work of Kiwanis with underprivileged children. Guests were present from Spartanburg and Hendersonville and they praised highly the work being done here. Talks were made by Editor J. T. Fain of Hendersonville, Kiwanis governors T. W. Crews, and Deck Hull of Spartanburg, Dr. Taylor of New York. President Jackson of Tryon, President Cobb of Spartanburg and Chairman Burrell of Spartanburg.

Rites For J.M. Butler

Funeral services for Mr. J. M. Butler were held this afternoon at the Tryon First Baptist church, with Dr. E. E. Bomar and the Rev. O. L. Robinson officiating. The pallbearers were B. L. Ballenger, T. W. Baller, Fred Wofford, J. B. Hester, Sr., W. W. Creasman, Claude Davidson.

Free Movies at Mimosa

The Kiwanis moving pictures from the Des Moines, Iowa club will be shown tonight at Mimosa Inn at 8 o'clock. There will be no charge and anyone interested is welcome to come. The picture will show what Kiwanis has done for underprivileged children. All Kiwanians are urged to attend.

Negro Drops Dead

A. B. Brumfield, well-known colored man of Tryon dropped dead last night on the highway near the Erskine Rock bridge. He had served as waiter at Mimosa Inn and was on his way home. The body was found about 4 o'clock this morning. Burial at Gastonia Friday.