

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, OCT 18, 1932.

Est. 1-31-28

Today's News Headlines

Insull says charges to bring him back to U.S. from Greece are absurd. Troops quell uprising in Canadian penitentiary. Roosevelt visits N. Carolina next week. Hoover to speak at Detroit Saturday. Flooded streams covered the Highway between Hendersonville and Brevard yesterday. In some places the railroad track was under water.

Windsor Returns Home

Philip B. Windsor, associate editor of the Bulletin, returned today from a conference with leaders in the North who are interested in his plans to correct the economic evils of the world. He reports considerable interest shown in the Bulletin by these men who are subscribing to the Bulletin in order to keep in touch with Mr. Windsor's work. A letter from Philadelphia today indicates that the Bulletin is being borrowed and passed around among friends there. Tryon is getting advertised. Your Ad., your party or any little news item helps to make the paper more interesting. Let's co-operate and reap a larger benefit.

Kiwanis at Landrum

The Kiwanis club will meet next Tuesday at Baptist church in Landrum. Dr. J.M. Wallace in charge of program, Guests at meeting today were Mrs. J.B. Blanton, Mooresboro, B.S. Blanton, Charlotte, Secretary Ray Wanner, Aiheville and J.M. Baker, Tryon.

TRYON THEATRE

MONDAY and TUESDAY

JACKIE COOPER

YOU saw him in "The Champ". "Skippy". "Sooky" and
"When a Feller Needs a Friend". NOW in his latest triumph

"Divorce in the Family"

LEWIS STONE ^{with} CONRAD NAGEL
LOIS WILSON