

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Published every day except Sunday
Seth M. Vining, Editor
Philip B. Windsor, Associate Editor

Editor W. O. Saunders of Elizabeth City writes an appeal to the Bulletin for support in creating interest in the proposed celebration in 1934 of the first English settlement in America on Roanoke Island in 1584. He also wants money to carry on this work which will create world wide interest in North Carolina and awaken our own people to the State's greatness. "We are going to sell North Carolina to North Carolinians and to the world"

Editor Saunders. Paul Green and Frank Koch of the Carolina Playmakers are already at work on a pageant drama. The ancient settlement will be recreated with real Indians, primitive tobacco fields, pumpkins, etc., the life of the colony of that time. Membership fee $1 per year. If you are interested in promoting this good work send your $1 to W.O. Saunders, Elizabeth City, N.C. Please mention you read this in the Tryon Daily Bulletin. You will receive an artistic certificate that you will treasure, for it pictures this historical event, and it is worthy enough to hand down as an heirloom to your children.
