Senator Copeland Shocked

The Republican candidate for Mayor, of New York L.H. Pounds, said: "Mr. O'Brien the Democratic candidate for Mayor is a wonderful man. I don't know of anyone I would more enjoy being with." Mr. O'Brien replied "Mr. Pounds is a man of honor and a sportsman to the core. It would be beautiful if in all political activities the leaders of men would rise above the level of political life and be sportsmen and gentlemen" Senator Copeland standing nearby said "I thought for a minute that I had been struck by an automobile and gone to heaven."

Amen--Editor of the Bulletin.
