

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, OCT 24, 1932.

Est. 1-31-2

Today's News Headlines

18 Negroes and one White drown in Mississippi as bus goes in accidently at ferry crossing. Mussolini asks U.S. to cut war debt. Wets to exceed drys in next Congress. More politics.

Political Meetings

A Republican meeting will be held tonight at Mill Spring school house. Editor James F. Barrett of Brevard is the speaker. A Democratic meeting will be held tonight at Saluda with C.O. Ridings as speaker.

Kiwanis at Landrum

Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday, 1 p.m. at Landrum Baptist church dining room. Dr. J.M. Wallace in charge of program.

Season's First Ride For Hunt

Club to be Held Wednesday

The Riding & Hunt club will hold its first picnic ride Wednesday afternoon. All members and visitors are invited to join the party. Those on horseback will meet at Harmon Field at 3:30 and go to Cedar Cliff for the picnic supper. Those in automobiles will meet at Harmon Field at 4 o'clock and go to Cedar Cliff via Howard Gap road. Supper will be served at 5 p.m. The club furnishes free coffee and steak which will be cooked at Cedar Cliff. All members and guests furnish whatever sandwiches, pickles, or other lunch they desire. Remember, any visitor in town is invited. Notify C.J. Lynch, so he'll know how much steak and coffee to fix.

---

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year

---