

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 26, 1932. Est. 1-31-2

Today's News Headlines

Alabama legislature votes for Sunday movies, baseball, golf, and tennis. Business looking up says Reserve Board. Thousands cheered Roosevelt as he passed through North Carolina yesterday enroute North from Georgia. Hoover to speak at Indianapolis Friday.

Picnic Ride Postponed

The Riding & Hunt Club picnic ride has been postponed until Friday if weather permits. If not, then the first clear day after that.

Dr. Southall of Peabody College to Speak at Columbus Saturday

On Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Columbus School auditorium, Dr. Maycie Southall of Peabody College of Nashville will talk to the parents of Polk County on "Advanced Methods in Child Management". She is an outstanding educator and will be of help to all who hear her. It is an opportunity parents can't afford to miss.

Library Closed Thursday

The library will not be open on Thursday morning on account of work being done in the library. Books due Thursday may be kept over to Saturday without extra charges.

At Tryon Theatre Wednesday and Thursday

"BLONDE VENUS" featuring Marlene Dietrich, Dickie Moore, Herbert Marshall, Cary Grant, M-G-M Comedy and Novelty. She goes into the depths for love of her son. Acclaimed the best super production.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY: "Night Court" with

Tryon Theater

*Phillips Holmes, Walter Huston
Anita Page. Lewis Stone*