Today's News Headlines

Mostly politics. Wallace Davis, former Asheville banker, now in prison. Hunger marchers and London police in battle. 2 U.S. army men face court martial for stealing and selling plans. Weather for Saturday, FAIR. Halloween party at Tryon school tonight.

At Rotary Club Today

Julian Hester had charge of an interesting program, 1 p. m. Oak Hall. S.A. Bingham showed some interesting moving pictures of Holland scenes. He and H.W. Crandall gave short talks about parts of Europe they visited recently. They found some resentment against the United States for its high tariff.

Tryon Loses in Football

Strong Woodruff team defeated locals yesterday 13 to 0 at Woodruff.

Off for Picnic-Ride

The weather was beautiful this afternoon when the Riding & Hunt club riders left Harmon Field for Cedar Cliff for picnic-supper at 5 o'clock.

Bus Ride for Parents

All parents who have no way of going to Columbus to hear Dr. Southall's talk on "Better Management of Children" may ride the school bus if they will meet at the Tryon School house at 2:15. Those living at Lynn and along the way may ride also. No. charges.
